

Charlie Edward Pannell

February 19, 1945 - April 3, 2012

CHARLIE EDWARD PANNELL was born on February 19, 1945 in Langraff, West Virginia to the late Charles S. and Rachel I. Pannell. After fighting a long courageous battle, the Lord called him home to a peaceful rest on Tuesday, April 3, 2012.

Charlie began his formal education in West Virginia and completed his studies in the Baltimore City Public School System. Upon graduating from Paul Laurence Dunbar High School, he entered the United States Army. After receiving an honorable discharge from the military, Charlie was employed at Bethlehem Steel for twenty-seven years after which he retired. Charlie accepted the lord as his personal Savior at an early age. He was member of Friendship Baptist Church and also Frequently visited Southern Baptist Church.

Charlie married the late Carolyn Pannell and from this union a son was born. Later in life Charlie married the love of his life, Barbara Ford and from this union a beautiful daughter was brought into this world.

He was known for his stylish dress, sense of humor, and making sure everything was in order. Charlie had numerous friends; wherever he went he was fondly known as "Charlie P". he demonstrated what it was to be a true brother, friend and mentor to those in which he came into contact. He was also sentimental. He made sure he acknowledged his loved ones on every holiday with either a customized card or flower.

His sister, Helen Brooks preceded him in death.

Charlie leaves to cherish his memory: his devoted and loving wife, Barbara Pannell of twelve years and they shared over thirty years of friendship; son, Curtis Pannell; daughter, Tandra Patterson; two stepsons, Derrick Ford and Terrell Webb. Charlie will forever be remembered by: three sisters, Mary Harris of Albany New York, Arberdella Pannell and Marie Addison; two brothers-in-law, Wilbert Harris and Ronald Addison; two grandchildren, Daquanne Patterson and Malik Patterson; two aunts, Evelyn Durham of Washington, D.C. And Thelma Pannell of Virginia; adopted sister, Mary Coles; best friend, Alexander "Skin" Wright; and a host of great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews and friends.
