“ To the family of Charlie Samuel Parker:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ Hello Parker Family

My name is Clarence Grant and I wanted to express my condolence to the family. I lost both my parents to death in recent years and the pain of the loss is now bearable. Within time feeling of remorse do lessen despite the terrible void that is in our heart. Many wonder did God intend for us to live this way. The answer is No. Ecc 3:11 states that he has put eternity in our heart. God don't change. He original purpose for Adam and Eve is still the same. The lord Prayer is his "Will" "Will be done on Earth as it is in Heaven" Matt 6:9-15. Please keep in mind the word of Faithful Job (Job 14:14,15) This bible verse has help me immeasurably. I hope that the family continue to cope with the loss and meditate on Ps 145:116. My contact cgrant@mris.com 410-336-4476 or please visit our web site www.jw.org

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
