

Charlie Williams

April 4, 1928 - August 27, 2009

Charlie James Williams, son of the late Arthur Glaspie and Pollie Williams-Bryant, was born April 4, 1928 in Magnolia, North Carolina. He departed his life on August 27, 2009 at a place where we all called home. He received his education in the public schools of North Carolina. Charlie James Williams served in the United States Army from 1951 until his honorable discharge in 1953. He met and married the late Lillie Mae Williams and they later moved to Baltimore, Maryland. Out of that union, they were blessed with five wonderful children. He joined the Labors' International Union of North America in 1959 (Local #194, #710), The American Legion in 1992, and also became a brother at the Masonic Temple (Lodge #121). He also worked various construction jobs throughout his life until he retired in 1988. Charlie made friends wherever he went, and he could always make you laugh. He was full of knowledge and wisdom. When he entered the room he demanded respect and he wouldn't have it any other way. Also long as you were welcomed into his house, you could sit down and have a nip with him. Everyone that knew him knew he always had a story to tell. His presence will be truly missed. Charlie James leaves to mourn; four children, two sons, Johnnie and Arthur Williams and two daughters, Pauline Williams-Wardlow and Mary Williams-Frazier; eleven grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren; two sisters, Laverne DeMinds and Vanessa Roscoe; niece, Cassandra Hawthorne; sister-in-law, Ann Jenkins of N.C.; two brothers-in-law, Randolph Sutton of N.C. and Roscoe; stepbrother, Wardell Jefferies; son-in-law, Shakarian Frazier; daughter-in-law, Angela Williams; and a host of other nieces, cousins, family and friends.
