

Charlotte Alston

June 22, 1928 - December 13, 2003

Charlotte Alston, daughter of the late Russell and Savannah Arrington, was born on June 22, 1928 in Franklin County, North Carolina. On Saturday, December 13, 2003 she took the GLORY TRAIN home. She was educated in Louisburg County Public Schools. She accepted Christ as her personal Savior at an early age and attended Hickory Grove Baptist Church in North Carolina. In 1949 she married Jesse Alston. From this union five children were born while they resided in North Carolina. In 1953 they moved to Turner Station in Baltimore, Maryland. Charlotte and Jesse then had five additional children. She was employed until she retired at Church Home and Hospital, where she was very much loved and respected by the staff and patients. In the 1980's she became a member, until her passing, of Faith Church of The Lord Jesus Christ. Charlotte, also affectionately known as Koot, had a humble and sincere smile that made everyone she came in contact with feel warm and welcomed. Her charming wit and sense of humor would catch you off guard, but always captured your smile. In spite of many life's adversities, she embraced each and every day with her AWESOME STRENGTH AND UNDYING FAITH in the Lord. Two daughters, Lula Mae Alston and Carolyn Williams and one son, Thurman Alston, preceded her death. She leaves to mourn: her ex-husband, Jesse Alston; four daughters, Margaret Lewis, Charlene Alston, Murtina Zeh and Diane Thomas; three sons, Lawrence, Jimmie and Daniel Alston; two daughters-in-law, Iris and Muriel Alston; two sons-in-law, Jeffrey Thomas and Clement Zeh; one brother, Joe; five sisters,

Linda, Maggie, Minnie, Emma, and Savannah; one sister-in-law, Corrine; one brother-in-law, Robert; sixteen grandchildren, nineteen great-grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Dear friends and family, I am so sorry to hear about the loss of Mrs. Alston. When we lose some- one that is dear to us it can leave us feeling so empty inside. No matter how much time goes by the pain from losing a loved one is still there. I have found that the finest basis for encouragement comes from the Bible. A relationship with Almighty God Jehovah can help you to cope with your loss. Never underestimate the value of prayer. If talking to a friend can help, how much more can pouring out your heart to the God of all comfort help you. Notice what the Bible says at Psalms 55:22.... Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, and he himself will sustain you. Never will he allow the righteous to totter. (Read Psalms 83:18.) There is a brochure entitled "When Someone You Love Dies" that is very comforting. This is free of charge and the brochure is based on the bible. You can get a copy from anyone of Jehovah's Witnesses. I encourage you to read the scriptures that have been written for yourself in your copy of the Bible. I hope that you can find some comfort from these scriptures. Take care.##imported-begin##Ava##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
