“ “A great soul serves everyone all the time. A great soul never dies. It brings us together again and again.” ~Maya Angelou

I continue to be fascinated by the impact we can have on each other's lives, and the apparently frequent aspect of being unaware of it, on one side or the other.

My opportunities to see Charlotte over the years was limited, even moreso after childhood. But when we were together we had such fun! I was always impressed with her beauty, amplified by her personality. (One fixed memory is of her dressed in white.)

It was therefore particularly touching to see Charlotte at my wedding.

Despite the intervening years we picked up where we left off.

She has been essentially the same as when we were kids, retaining that kind of optimism and – just being real.

Too often it seems we are blessed with treasured people for too short a time. I am grateful to have known you cousin and I will try to follow your example.

“ In the Fall of 1982, I was far away from home and alone - a Freshman on the campus of Purdue University having just said goodbye to my family. My roommates hadn't yet arrived. I walked to the dormitory cafeteria, ordered my food and sat alone to eat. Just then, the tiniest, most beautiful young lady sat down in front of me, said hi and we began to chat as if we were old friends catching up after a while apart. And that would be our way for a lifetime. I knew from the moment I met her that she would be my Spirit Sister. We have cheered each other on through every seminal moment of our lives. And now that she is truly my Spirit Sister - our newest Angel. I pray she will continue to check in with me from time to time and give me a bit of her courage and tenacity when I need it. On behalf of my wife Lisa and our family, many of whom have met and adore her, may God bless her and her family and keep her until we join her and the ancestors in paradise. - Ken Brown

“ I'm saying a prayer of thanks to God for blessing me with Charlotte as my wonderful friend. We met when both worked at Alcoa. She always had a smile and positive words of encouragement during a difficult time in my life. She and Winford always made feel right at home when I visited them. Charlotte and I cooked together in her kitchen. I remember when they brought Justin home and how happy she was being a Mom and wife. When I moved from Richmond to NC 6 years ago, she stayed in touch. Charlotte made sure that we saw each other many times when she came to NC with her family. Thank you Charlotte for being a caring, loving and generous friend and for the fun we had together. I will always remember you inviting me to the Outer Banks to help celebrate your birthday with your family. I will miss talking with you and seeing you. You will always have a special place in my heart. My thoughts and prayer are with the Charlotte's entire family and her many friends.

“ I remember when Charlotte was born. My mother went over to Montclair NJ to baby sit. She was my beautiful little cousin. Always with a smile. It is difficult to grasp the fact that she will not be with us physically but her spirit lives on.

Rest In Peace

“ I met Charlotte while working at Reynolds and she was so kind from the very first day we met. I don't know of anyone with a prettier smile or a kinder spirit. Even though life's schedules were getting the best of us we always tried to get a quick check in each year at Halloween when she stopped by to bring Justin trick or treating. Know that if you need anything Winford we are always here for Justin and you. You are in our prayers.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Charlotte for the last 5 years at Amazon and previously at Alcoa. Her calm and happy demeanor, at all times, truly was refreshing and will be truly missed. She was always so upbeat and positive to be around. Charlotte truly took the time to get to know everyone she met and My thoughts and prayers are with Justin, Winford and the rest of the family. I will always remember her fondly... she will be missed.

Charlotte. I remember you coming in the off site for Amazon before the building opening. Wow 5 years... I remember our talks about raising only children that are boys. How our boys melts our hearts and will always be our babies.. I remember talking about going natural.. and countless PEAK stories. Im going to truly miss your smile, your soft voice and your infectious laugh. Rest in Peace my friend.
