

Charlotte E. Crowder

October 28, 1980 - November 25, 2013

Charlotte (Missy) Crowder, daughter of Robert Crowder, Sr. and the late Charlotte Streat-Thornton was born on October 28, 1980 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was called home on November 25, 2013 after a tragic fire at her residence.

She received her education at Harbor City High School and was in the process of obtaining her GED. She had several cooking jobs at various organizations all over Baltimore. In addition, she enjoyed cooking for her family especially during family events.

Missy enjoyed and dedicated her life to providing for her three children to her best ability. She even went out of her way for others that she cared about, giving her last if needed. She enjoyed preparing for family and friend gatherings and cooking her famous “Missy’s Fried Chicken”! She was the “life of the party” enjoying herself everywhere she went. Some of her interests were her personal photo shoots, partying, cooking, dancing, but most of all taking care of her children. She often called any and everybody “boo” as a loving gesture. Missy’s style was a trade mark that showed how she loved unconditionally. All in all, she was an outgoing, fun loving person.

She leaves to mourn: grandmother, Ella Mae Streat; father, Robert Crowder, Sr.; stepfather, Leslie Thornton; two sons, Melvin Bean IV and Jawon Jones; one daughter, Mashea Elliott; brother, Robert Crowder, Jr.; sister, Markeia Crowder; sister-in-law, Tomeka Crowder; close cousin, Latasha Turner; Godmother, Kim Thomas; niece, Lakera Crowder; and special friend, Kevin Beck. She also leaves behind a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and other close family and friends.

Miss was 1 of a kind!!! She will truly be missed by us all.

“ My deepest sympathy to you Markeia and your family. Your family is in our prayers, thoughts and heart. I cant even begin to understand what you are going through, but know that if you ever, ever need anything all you have to do is come to me. I am here for a hug, for guidance, a shoulder to lean on for anything that you might need. God bless you, God bless your family... Love you, love you, lots.

“ my sister. I love you more than you will ever know. I will forever you in my heart. even though my heart is hurting and I want you here on earth with me I will remember the goods times we've shared and had. you were always my line dance partner.lol. sis im missing you so much. you were always smiling and laughing. I cant believe you are gone but im realizing you were one of Gods angels that he allowed us to borrow until his work with you was done.so I wont be selfish and just realize that you are in the best place to be. even though the tears I shed are from hurt of losing you they are also from the good times. I will take care of keia, and daddy, and my niece and nephews. Kiss mommy for me and tell her I miss and love her so much. rest in paradise sis. until we meet again. I love you forever and always.
