

Charlotte Gray

December 26, 1942 - December 22, 2011

Charlotte Campbell Gray was a gift... she was very special. There are not enough words to describe her. She was loving, caring and extremely giving, funny, intelligent, loyal and selfless. She loved her family. After the death of her mother, she raised three nieces and two nephews.

Char, as she was affectionately called, was born to Norman T. Sr. and Lucille E. Campbell on December 26, 1942. After a lengthy illness, she departed this life to be with her eternal father on December 22, 2011 in Sinai Hospital.

She was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. She loved to cook; her specialties were hog maws and chittlings, potato salad, collard greens, fried chicken and cinnamon buns. She also loved the "one-arm bandit" slot machines.

Charlotte married John Grafton Gray and they had one child, Theresa. Never expecting a grandchild, she was blessed with a grandson, Grafton Earl Gray, five years ago.

Char was employed by Baltimore County as a school bus driver for many years, retiring in 2001.

Charlotte Gray departed this life on December 22, 2011. She is survived by her loving husband of over 40 years, Johnny; daughter, Theresa Mae; one grandson, Grafton Earl; one brother, Lester Campbell, Sr.; three sisters-in-law; Tina, Darlene and Queenie; three brothers; Norman, Eugene and Marshall and one sister, Gloria all preceded her in death. She is also survived by “her mother” Pamela Cambell Thibodo; best friend, Edna Bailey and many loving nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews and friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
