

Charlotte H. Martin

September 14, 1947 - November 17, 2018

Charlotte Henrietta Martin was born on September 14th, 1947 to the late Diane Johnson and Sidney Hill. Born the 2nd of 4 children, Charlotte Hill was in the 1400 block of Fayette in West Baltimore. The likes of her siblings, Thomas "Michael" Hill, Charles Hill, and Yvonne "Bonnie" Reed were essential in helping her to develop, what we all came to know as her "boss lady" mentality. A graduate of Baltimore's renown Paul G. Laurence Dunbar High School, Charlotte placed her sights on moving into a career that would relish in who she aspired to become. Post to graduation, she immediately took her skills and talents to the Social Security Administration.

Our beloved Charlotte, with her fierce demeanor took her work seriously, but not nearly as serious as ensuring all were dealt with in fairness and equality. It was this aggressive advocacy and curiously perfect poise, that caught the attention of the late, Preston Johnson--together, they born one beautiful baby girl, Tonya Diane Johnson.

She leaves behind 1 daughter and son-in-law; Tonya Hood & Michael Hood, 3 beautiful grandchildren; Kaaba Flowers, Michael Hood and Maliah Hood, Companion; Ronald Riley, Brother & Family; Michael Hill, Brenda Lee, Aaron and Travis, Nephew & Family; Umar and Norma Reed, Xavier, Jamie Jamyra, Janiya and Jalal, Dear Friend; Cecil Richardson & a host of other beloved friends and family members.
