“ I would like to say I didn't know my grandmother well because of distance and the way my family is. However, she is still my grandmother and I am sorry I wasn't closer to her. First, I would like to say her father's name wasn't Dennis Chaffman it was Raymond Chaffman. I find it very upsetting that all of her siblings, children, and grandchildren were not listed. She was preceded in death by siblings; Ira, Gilbert, Bose, Linwood, Helen, Vivian, and Segernia. She is survived by siblings; Ronald, Martin, Margaret, Ruby, and Carole. She has two more surviving daughters, Laura Elizabeth Jones and Cheryle Lynn Jones, as she had several more grandchildren; Rachel Householder, Cheryle Householder, Aaron Hunt, and Michael Hough. Great grandchildren; Kira & Kalina Amshey, and Drew Householder. She didn't graduate high school because she had her first child at 14 and 5 more after that time. She didn't have a great life as portrayed in the obituary above. Her life was hard. She did the best she could with the horrible children she was given. Love of her life? Really? The one who provided the lovely life of drugs and pain to her, her children, and their children together. That is what unhealthy people with warped minds would write. I am glad she is at rest and in the arms of the lord, so no one else can hurt or use her. Rest in peace grandma.

“ I am so very sorry that you lost your dear loved one. Losing a loved one is truly devastating to the family, and sadly, people the world over go through this every day. Was this God's purpose for us? Never may that be the case. Adam and Eve lost out on everlasting life for us and sold us into sin and death, but through the all-encompassing love of our heavenly father Jehovah and his son, Jesus Christ, we will be delivered thorough out of this sad situation. 1st Cor 15:22 promises, "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ all will be made alive." The prophet Daniel foretold that many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up. Daniel 12:2. Also John 5:28,29 promises that all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus's voice and come out to a ressurection of life. May the promise of the ressurection be a wonderful source of comfort for you and your family. I invite you to contact me at my e-mail address so that I can further discuss God's purpose with you. May your wonderful memories of Charlotte bring many happy thoughts to your hearts until you see her alive once again.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Charlotte R. Hammonds. Losing a loved one in death is a painful time. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S. “ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was never part of Jehovah God's original purpose because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). John5:28-29 and Acts24:15 assures us that all those who have fallen asleep in death will live again by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##
