

Charlotte Irene Waters

March 22, 1949 - December 15, 2017

Charlotte Irene Waters was born March 22, 1949 to the late Thomas Johnson and Dorothy Watkins. She received her education and graduated from Baltimore City Public Schools, later earning several certificates in Nursing and Patient Care.

Charlotte affectionately called Irene, NanNan, or Mother Waters was a woman who loved to travel the world. She vacationed several places across the globe from Haiti, Israel, Egypt, Bahamas, California, enjoying her annual June 12th vacation to Orlando, Florida and her Holiday visit to NYC. Her motto was "you need to travel and see the world as much as possible, to experience other cultures." This led to her briefly residing in Chicago, Illinois.

She married Pastor Charles E. Waters and out of this union one son was born, Dr. Charles S. Waters.

A woman of many dreams, elegance and class. She would grace your presence with a hint of White Linen, her signature fragrance, a string of white pearls and her beloved anniversary diamond. She had a quick humorous wit, always kept it real and was bound to keep you laughing. She was a member of the Sister for Sisters Organization and a proud developer of an underwear and swim line called Irene Buddies. Compassionate with a heart for the less fortunate, her business proceeds were to help build water wells in Africa and a worship Dome here in the states.

Serving the Lord was a top priority. Irene found Christ and received salvation at Faith Tabernacle Church under Rev R.G. Hardy. She loved singing on the Choir and participating in street meetings. Later she briefly became a member of Victorious Ministries under Tony Smith. Eventually God called Irene to stand with her only son and she became a devout member of New Generation Ministries, now Word of Faith Christian Center. There she served wholeheartedly as an evangelist, she was the "Mother" of the church. She planned trips, special events and formed various auxiliaries such as The Wisdom Team.

Next to the love of her only son "Stevie", and her devoted husband "Junior" of 45 years, she was a proud grandmother of two girls, Stephanie and Kayla (Kay-Kay as she called her). She loved them as if she birthed them herself. It was never a surprise to find NanNan and her crew sitting on the porch enjoying crabs in the sun, walking Greenmount Avenue, hanging at Towson Mall, The Inner Harbor, or packed and ready for an adventurous trip to some faraway place.

She will be dearly missed.

She leaves in her wake: her husband, Pastor Charles E. Waters; son, Bishop Dr. Charles S. Waters; daughter-in-law, Terry Jefferson-Waters; two granddaughters, Stephanie and Kayla Waters; six siblings, Lena, Williams, Jerry, Mary, Jeanette, and Thomas(Romie); sister-in-law, Denise; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and wonderful friends.

“ I remember with fondness the friendship of Charlotte during her membership at Faith Tabernacle Church, 2422 W.Patapsco Ave., Baltimore, Md. 21230. She was both serious about her walk with the Lord and joyful with brothers and sisters in Christ. I recall the wonderful dinners we had in her home; times of fellowship and fun.

When she became pregnant with her first and only child, Steven, she was ecstatic and set in her heart to raise him in the ways of the Lord.

I have not seen her much in the past 20 years, but whenever she visited Faith Tab, she let me know either by word or countenance, that the Word going forth rang true in her spirit.
