“ *Hello I want to give the family my deepest condolences and to also let you know that the last enemy death will be no more as found in God's word the Bible in Rev 21:4 And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. “ Chasteen and my Grandad became close friends after my Grandad had his first heart attack. When he later passed Chasteen donated Bibles to the Intensive Care and Heart Unit at the hospital in his memory. Then later he met my husband and he let us use his truck one day to move our furniture. We all fell in love with this kind, gentle man. Sorry to hear of his passing. Our Prayers and thoughts are wit you at this time.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Cherish the fond memories of your dear loved one. Have faith in the Kingdom Jesus taught his early followers to pray for at Matthew 6:9. This Kingdom will do away with our enemy, death, once and for all. Then we can look forward to another important action, the resurrection of millions of dead loved ones who have the prospect of growing to perfection under God's Messianic King. What great family reunions lay ahead. Until then let us run this race for life with endurance.
