The Obituary

“I just wanna be pleasant to others no matter how I feel...”

Chavier J. Griffin

To have touched so many lives in so little time, bears testament to the fact that your purpose was divine.

Surely, God, in his grace and mercy, summoned you here, to counsel and comfort others, in the midst of heartaches and tears.

Chavier Jamonté Griffin, 25, of Hawaii, formerly of Chesterfield, Virginia, departed this life Thursday, April 18, 2019. She was such a bright and joyous light to all who knew her. She had a unique ability to make all of her friends feel as though they were special, which they were and are. Even from the time that she was full of energy, hope, joy, love and maturity.

Her parents recount a story, of how once when Chavier was three years old, they were driving along the road, and she began singing the gospel song called: “Goin up Yonder”, by Tramaine Hawkins.

Chavier sang the song so strong and passionately that her mother was afraid that the Lord would soon take her daughter to heaven to be with him, so much so, that she told Chavier not to sing that particular song anymore. Her mother prayed and pleaded with God not to take her, and the Lord answered her prayer and let Chavier’s parents and friends enjoy her presence for nearly twenty-three more years.

Chavier Jamonté Griffin was always willing to help anyone who was in need- day or night. Her words and actions were, undoubtedly, sincere, comforting, and mixed with love, wisdom and profound understanding. Chavier meant so much to so many people, who meant so much to her. She was, indeed, very beautiful-inside and out. She was, also, highly-intelligent, sensitive, hard-working, inspiring, dependable and strong. Chavier will always live in our hearts.

She leaves to cherish her memory parents, Lillian and John Griffin Jr.; sisters, LaTarsha and Toccara McMahand, Shanté, Shanese and Chanae Griffin; brother, Jabari Robinson (Jaime); godsister, Adriana Herring; nephews and nieces, Tarsaun McMahand, Tayvon, Marqwan and Jamere Griffin, Jabrieah and Jaliyah Robinson; a host of other relatives and friends.

Dear Chavier, you are truly loved and missed. The pain of losing you, hurts as never before. Your wonderful spirit, which no one could resist, is now, in the presence of God, forever mor
