

Chelsie M. Davis

March 8, 1960 - March 5, 2002

God in His infinite wisdom saw fit to release Chelsie M. Davis, Jr. from his earthly life on Tuesday, March 5, 2002 at Maryland General Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland. Chelsie was born March 8, 1960 in Baltimore. He was the loving son of Chelsea M. Davis, Sr. and the late Agnes C. Davis. He received his education in the Blatimore County Public Schools and graduated from Woodlawn High School in 1979. He furthered his education at Virginia Union University in Richmond, VA and University of Maryland Eastern Shore. Upon completion of his education, he became a full-time employee of the Hyatt Regency Hotels. In 1933, Chelsie became a full-time employee of Johns Hopkins University Book Press and remained a dedicated employee until his health began to fail. Chelsie accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as his personal savior at an early age. He attended church with his family until he became an active member of First Apostolic Faith church. He exemplified his Christian discipleship and was willing to help those in need and committed his services to the following church auxiliaries; Greeters, Male Chorus, Mass & Sanctuary Choirs and Bibleway Churches worldwide annual convocations. Chelsie loved people, and all of his family and friends loved him. He made friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. To know him was to love him. Chelsie loved people, and all of his family and friends loved him. He made friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. To know him was to love him. Chelsie is survived by: his loving and devoted father, Chelsea M. Davis, Sr.; one sister, Jennifer of Oxon Hill, MD; one niece, Kayla of Oxon Hill, MD; a devoted life-long friend, Charlotte Lightford of Baltimore, MD; three aunts, Louise McGee of Summit, MS, Lois P. Small of Greensboro, N.C.; Lorna D. Hassell of Brookneal, VA; one uncle, Rudolph L. Davis of Pittsburgh, PA., a host of relatives and friends.

“The worth of a man is told by what he gives and how he lives”

Tribute Wall

“ Chelsie M. Davis

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Please accept our condolences in this time of great sorrow for you. The love you shared will help sustain you and bring you peace.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM