“ Miss Cheryl only working with you for 3 years you taught me so much, humility and having faith in God will carry you a long way. On those days when I felt I couldn't make it you always had a word or two of encouragement for me. Not being able to see your smile or hear you laugh will be the hardest thing for me at work now. When ever I walked past your desk you would say something that would make me laugh. I love and will truly miss you. To your family you have my deepest sympathy and to you Boo Boo (this is the name that she called her son) always remember there wasn't a day that past that your Mom did not speak of you, she was so very proud of you. May God bless you all doing these trying times.

In spirit HE saves
