

Cheryl Christine Williams

January 14, 1954 - January 11, 2010

Our beloved Cheryl Christine Williams, was born in Pee Dee, South Carolina, January 14, 1954 to Odessa Samuels and the late Melvin Dixon, and the oldest sibling of fourteen. On January 11, 2010, she departed this earthly life. She was preceded in death by her granddaughter, Tieraney Jones; grandson, DeSean Willims; paternal grandmother, Hester Dixon (who raised her) and Victoria Braddy; and a sister, Betty Owens. Cheryl attended and graduated from Kennedy High School in 1972. She married Jerome Jones and from that union two girls were born, Baquiva and Melva. She met her second husband, Alston "Whistle" Williams and Altovise and Ashley Williams, two girls were born. She accepted Christ at an early age and attended Richmond Christian Center. Cheryl later transferred her membership to St. Paul's Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. Dr. Lance Watson. Cheryl was always jovial, caring, doting, very hardworking and dedicated mother and grandmother that loved her grandchildren. She was overjoyed when she finally got a grandson, since she had always wanted a boy. She was a social butterfly and enjoyed having parties and attending social affairs. Cheryl was a great cook and loved to bake. Her apple pies were famous and she was known for her pineapple upside-down cake along with her baked chicken and meatloaf. Cheryl enjoyed traveling the country and going on cruises. She was a born leader, had an independent spirit and was a woman of strength. Cheryl leaves fond memories to her loving and devoted four daughters, Baquiva and Melva Jones, Altovise and Ashley

“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was not a part of Jehovah God's original purpose because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). John5:28-29 and Acts24:15 promises that there is going to be a resurrection to perfect life on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ I would like to extend my deepest sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Losing a loved one in death is truly difficult. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day be no more (Revelation 21:3,4). The Bible provides us with God's comforting words at Isaiah 25:8 that soon, "He will actually swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces". As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S.
