

Cheryl A. Harris

December 11, 1964 - May 7, 2017

On May 7th, 2017, Cheryl Alisa Harris was called home to be reunited with her parents and two brothers in paradise. On a relatively warm Friday on the 11th of December in 1964 God graced the earth with a playful and charismatic soul who would touch many during her 52-year journey.

Being the youngest of three and the only girl born to Fred and Mattie Harris, Cheryl grew up strong minded, strong willed and determined to get whatever she wanted.

Born and raised in Baltimore, Cheryl excelled in school, graduating from Edmondson High School.

After graduation, Cheryl stayed local to help around the house where she grew up working as a retail consultant and taking college courses.

It wasn't until the Fall of 1990 when Cheryl's life would change forever. On September 17th, 1990, Cheryl would give birth to her one and only child, a girl she would name, Melanie Marie Harris. From that moment forward, Cheryl dedicated her life to the well-being and security of her only child. Even after illness restricted her mobility and confined her to the care of nursing homes, she found comfort in knowing she did the best she could to give Melanie the tools needed to embark on this journey called life.

Cheryl leaves behind: her daughter, Melanie; grandson, Treylenn Laurent Harris; nephew, Tavon Jason Harris and his wife, Trequisha Harris; in-laws, Donna and Wayne Anderson; and a host of other cousins, aunts, uncles, grand nieces and nephews and friends; with special consideration to Le'Andra Walker and Taneisha Lewis.

Cheryl will be sorely missed and stay in the hearts of her loved ones forever.
