My thoughts and prayers are with the Jacobs family. Cheryl has been a dear friend for many years. I am so grateful for the many conversations, moments and memories over the years. We laughed and cried together and helped each other through everything life blesses us with us and throws at us. We could get on the phone and laugh for so long. Food for the soul. So direct and unforgivingly herself always! You always knew where you stood. I admired her and am so grateful to call her friend.

“ Cheryl and I were friends for over 40 years. We talked at least every other week. She was my political informant. She kept up with what was going on in the world of politics and could always send a link about any subject addressed.

Cheryl was so funny and had a song or a saying to relate to any subject, situation or person. The code names, the funny sayings, her laugh, her spinach dip, the Christmas, Birthday and any occasion cards, the great conversations, her personal thoughts about life will all be genuinely missed by me.

Cheryl took personally and to heart what her friends and family were experiencing and would manifest it within herself, feeling your pain, excitement, grief, love or whatever emotion was necessary. She truly loved her family and friends, and it showed.

My deepest and most sincere condolences to her family and as another writer said, my loss of Cheryl is selfish as I already miss our talks and outings and that run downtown to get Christophers'. This loss hit me very hard and I've been teary eyed ever since I found out. I will be missing you Cheryl for a long time.

May you rest in heavenly peace, until we meet again.

“ Cheryl Jacobs - My Friend

I met Cheryl at the Federal Reserve Bank (Richmond) and we became friends. A group of ladies in our Department ate lunch together almost every work day. Cheryl was one of those ladies and so am I. We continue to get together regularly, even those who have retired, moved on to other jobs, etc.

Cheryl loved her job and was VERY knowledgeable of EVERYTHING concerning her work. Her military experience was apparent: she was organized, timely, professional, and up-to-date on every procedural requirement.

Cheryl's was quick-witted, and kind, BUT not a push-over. Although short-statured, she could stand her ground against any opposition.

Her sense of humor was contagious. Her 'sayings', 'code-names', and 'expressions' - kept all of us laughing out loud.

Cheryl will be missed BUT never forgotten.

Praying for her family, friends, and all who were blessed to share time and space with her. I am selfishly saddened by her passing, but I am grateful to God for her healing and her peace.

“ We are saddened to hear about Cheryl. She was always a ray of sunshine at the Federal Reserve Bank and wherever you saw her. We see her lovely smile now and festive wear celebrating the holidays. The last time we talked she encouraged us to take an Alaska cruise because she had a fantastic time.

What a beautiful angel she is, who is now wearing her wings.

“ I was shocked and saddened to hear of Cheryl's passing. I worked with Cheryl in Records Management at the Fed, and we shared some good laughs. Cheryl was a hard worker and loved being in the file room. She could always find those hard-to-find paper records. She knew the file room like the back of her hand. It was pretty amazing to watch. She will be missed. My deepest sympathy to her family during this difficult time.
