

Cheryl D. Jones

September 18, 1965 - April 5, 2020

Cheryl Jones, daughter of Christine and James Nixon was born in Greenville, South Carolina on September 18, 1965. Cheryl's parents later moved from Greenville to Baltimore in 1967 to start a new job. Cheryl attended school in the southeastern part of the city that included elementary and high school. Cheryl later went to nursing school and obtained a certificate and went to work in that field. Cheryl enjoyed working in that field until she could not take the physical part of that job. She had a talent to do hair and became a hair stylist. Five years ago Cheryl gave her life to the Lord and joined Friendship Baptist Church. Cheryl leaves behind a special friend, Rodney Johnson; sister, Sherrelle; brother Christopher; sons, Antwaune, Kevin, Darian and Davaune; nine grandchildren and a host of aunts and cousins. May the Lord bless Cheryl and all of her family members.

TO THE FAMILY OF CHERYL JONES MY CONDOLENCES TO YOU MY HEART IS HEAVY I LOVED HER SO MUCH LIKE MY CHILD MY FAMILY LOVED HER SO MUCH TOO WILL BE MISSED BY EVERYONE CHERYL I WILL ALWAYS LOVE YOU UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN

Mae McLean - April 06, 2020 at 10:18 PM

I will miss my cousin Cheryl we where close when we was growing up you taught me how to do hair back in the day, and we always went out to have a good time. I will all ways miss you Cheryl but never forget you, when we traveled out of town together you kept me laughing all the way up and back you are at peace now. God called you home to be with him rejoice with the angles now you can rest until we meet again.

LOVE YOU ALWAYS.
