“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. When we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love, it pains us like no other. God's Word, the Bible, offers us comfort. At John 5:28,29 he assures us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." At John 17:3 he also tells us what we need to do to ensure we are witnesses of this great event. I offer you an opportunity to discuss these wonderful promises in detail. Please contact me.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares- "There is going to be a resurrection." According to the Bible that will be a time when many of our dead loved ones will return to life with the hope of no more death, sickness, pain, or sorrow. (Revelation 21:3-5) May you receive much comfort and strength when you think about the loving promises of the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ I am sorry to learn of the death of Cheryl. I'm sure that this must have been a difficult time for all of you. I'm forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalm 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. This was true when Moses wrote it but not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says...It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written but not so before God passed judgement on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##

“ Well, I had my 50th this year and I didn't get your phone call. But not to worry, I know you were there! It's been a year since you left and the world is changing at a quantam rate. It's hard to keep up with it. I'm "showing my age". Well, I am the oldest. I do miss you. Love always,Ronnie##imported-begin##Ronnie Armstrong##imported-end##
