

Cheryl M. Smith

July 1, 1958 - May 19, 2020

Cheryl Marie Smith was born on July 1, 1958 in Baltimore Maryland, the second of seven children of the late Yvonne Smith and Arthur E. Smith.

Cheryl received her primary schooling at Saint Pius V and All Saints School, she matriculated to Seton High School, graduating in 1977.

Shortly after graduating high school, Cheryl went to work for The FBI for a couple of years.

On December 30, 1984, Cheryl gave birth to her only child, Durrell Michael Johnson. The first grandchild to Arthur and Yvonne and the first time her siblings became uncles and aunts. Needless to say Durrell was loved and spoiled at every turn.

In 1998, Cheryl went to work for Medi-Fast and her co-workers, who she was very close to, learned something that we her siblings knew from her school days. Cheryl never missed a day of school or work (only a blizzard stopped her and she wanted to try that day).

Cheryl loved to sing and could carry a tune. Sometimes you weren't sure if it was the old school, R&B, DVD's she loved to play or if it was her voice. But her favorite most frequent pastime was ... SHOPPING! It didn't matter where or what, online, in person, food, clothing, shoes, furniture. If you were looking for Cheryl on a Saturday or Sunday and she wasn't at work she was out shopping. Those of you who know are shaking your head YUP right now!

Cheryl's Mom Yvonne and brother Anthony preceded her in passing. Cheryl is survived by her Dad, Arthur E. Smith; son, Durrell; brothers, Robert, Darryl and Charles (wife Bernadette); sisters, Yvette (husband Gregory Hill) Bernadette (late husband Marvin McNair); nieces, Imani, Robyn, Tarshea, Maya Rosa, Quadedra, Tahera, Shantel, Nyshe India, Jasmine; nephews, Robert II, Jamal, Tobias, and Joshua; along with great nieces and nephews; a host of friends and neighbors who will keep her alive through their memories.

Cheryl will be remembered by many and her willingness to help others will be missed.

“ I didn't want to believe that you were gone because I didn't have the chance to say goodbye. I didn't get the chance to tell you I love you again. You were more to me than just a friend. You was my sister, the one who never judged me, the one that never talked bad about me. All you did was loved me as I loved you. I will never forget the talks we had, all the laughs we shared. I promise that I will always check on my God son Durrell and that I will make sure he is okay. The tears won't stop and the pain seems unbearable at times. The only peace I have is knowing that you're up in Heaven...Living, Loving, Laughing and Dancing!! Please save a place for me. Until we meet again just know that I Love You,
