

Cheryl Theresa Stewart

August 22, 1959 - July 19, 2014

CHERYL THERESA STEWART, daughter of Richard and Yvonne Spellman, was born August 22, 1959 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on Saturday, July 19, 2014 after a lengthy illness.

She received her education at Paul Laurence Dunbar Senior High School in Baltimore. She began working for the Annie E. Casey Foundation in Baltimore, Maryland for several years. In 1991 Cheryl moved to Huntington Beach, California, where she resided for several years. She returned to Baltimore in 2010. She worked as an executive assistant and was most recently employed by the city of Baltimore. She was a member of the Blessed Trinity Church of Deliverance.

Cheryl was optimistic, thoughtful, and caring with everything that she did. Cheryl had a heart of gold and a smile that would brighten up the room. She was our family's personal cheerleader. Anyone that knew her knew that she had a beautiful spirit. She greeted everyone with a hug and a kiss, followed by her famous, "I love you." Cheryl always lifted up others and stressed the importance of doing what makes you happy. Family was everything to her and she spent every minute of the day reminding you of that. She was the life of the party and if she wasn't singing she was definitely dancing.

Cheryl made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone she knew. She was always a true and devoted friend to all, and that will never be forgotten.

She leaves to mourn: one son, Mark R. Bynum, Jr.; her mother, Yvonne Spellman; father, Richard Spellman and stepmother, Lucy Spellman; four sisters, Joyce Moody, Rosalind Sample, Natalie Dabbs and Brittany Spellman; seven grandchildren, Jabari, Aliyah, Anomie, Neveah, Amari, Shamar and Lamar; five nieces, Tiera, Brittney, Candace, Jada, Kaylin; four nephews, Rodney, Christian, Charles and Braylin; three great-nieces, Aniyah, Skylah and Bre'Asia; two great-nephews, Kamryn and Rodney Jr.; and a host of family and friends.

“ O God do not willingly grieve, or afflict your children, look with pity on the suffering of Cheryl's son and family in their loss; please sustain them in their anguish and pain; into the darkness of their grief bring the light of your love through Jesus Christ, we pray...Amen

Cheryl was gifted with a free spirit, may she rest in peace

*Sincerely,

“ My sincere condolences to your family. Death of a loved one is never easy to deal with and our heavenly Father knows this very well. That is why he made this promise in his word the Holy Bible that very soon death will be swallowed up so that we will not experience that pain anymore. This is found your in Bible at Isaiah 25:8. His wonderful son, Jesus Christ not only promised that there will be a resurrection of those that died; (John 5:28, 29) but he also demonstrated it when he resurrected his dear friend Lazarus from death; (John Chapter 11).

I hope that during this difficult time these and other delightful promises from our heavenly Father bring some comfort to your family.

“ There is a cloud of sadness amidst all of those who knew Cheryl. My family (The Blackwells) met Cheryl and her family during high school (1970's). It was always the bright smile and the vibrant personality that I remembered most about Cheryl. Losing contact with a dear friend is sometimes inevitable, but being able to reconnect is always a blessing. I am thankful that I was able to reunite with my friend, even when her days seem dark. May her gracious spirit look down upon us all. Praying for the Spellman and Stewart family that their faith remain strong and their belief remain steady. Rest Well, my friend.

“ I have known Cheryl for so many years, my heart goes out to her entire family. Cheryl and I were not only neighbors but we attended Lombard Junior High and Dunbar Senior High together. I remember the days when she and another classmate (Cynthia Jones, i.e. Ce-Ce) would come pass my house and we would all walk to the 21 bus stop together. I recently saw Cheryl in February, it was then that she informed me of her illness. I am so glad that we had the opportunity to sit and talk, she couldn't stay long because she was on her lunch-break but we talked the entire time. Ms. Yvonne stay strong and know that Cheryl is at peace, no more suffering, and our heavenly father is taking care of her now.

“ In behalf of me & my family, I would like to extend our deepest & heartfelt sympathy to Mrs. Yvonne Spellman & family in the passing of her daughter & my classmate and longtime friend, Cheryl T. Spellman Stewart. I will never forget her beautiful smile that could light up any space and her genuine personality & concern for others. I recall she always made it a priority to attend our class reunions no matter how far she had to travel. To the family, please dwell on the fact that to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. Surely, earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal. Her cares are all past & she is home at last. God bless you and comfort you incessantly. Love Eternal, Roger, Gwen, Roger II & Ross Evans
