

Chester Ernest Jackson

January 17, 1921 - March 17, 2006

CHESTER E. JACKSON, son of Albert and Mary Jackson, was born January 17, 1918. Chester was the youngest of nine children. He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. Chester was a chauffeur for Barton Cement for many years and later for Arundel Concrete until he retired. In November 1956, he married Clementine Conley. He loved to watch baseball and a good fight. Chester leaves to cherish his memory: his loving wife of fifty years, Clementine; his sister, Mary Frazier; sister-in-law, Shirley Fortson and her husband Herman; and a host of nieces and nephews, other family members and friends.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ So very sorry for your loss. People get so used to it, that they feel death is a natural part of life. But in reality it isn't natural, because Jehovah created people to live forever. Only because of the sin of Adam and Eve is why death became a part of life Will it always be this way? No it won't. because Jehovah has purposed to bring an end to this terrible enemy. 1st Cor:15,26 promises, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." No matter how or where a person died God remembers every detail about all of us, and can restore our lives back to us. Rev. 20:13 says, "And the sea gave up those dead in it, and death and Hades gave up those dead in them. So very soon we will be able to see our loved ones again according to God's promise. May that hope sustain you as well as your precious memories.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##
