

Chester J. Jordan

September 2, 1925 - December 12, 2003

Chester James Jordan, Sr. departed this life on December 12, 2003 during the quietness of the evening, just as his wife, the late Elizabeth Mary Jordan and his son, the late James Edward Jordan. Chester was born to the late Julius and JoAnna Jordan on September 2, 1925 in Lexington, Mississippi. He accepted Christ as his Savior and was baptized. Chester and Elizabeth were joined in Holy Matrimony on March 14, 1949. Out of this union there were four children. "Mr. Chester" or "Big Pap," as he was fondly known, joined the Israel Baptist Church family in September 1987, and was encouraged by the preaching of his pastor and the love of his church family; especially home visitation of Deacon Lilly. Such Christian conduct not only spoke, but also showed fulfillment of Jesus' very words. "How shall men know that you are my disciples, by love one for another" (John 13:35). Chester leaves to cherish his memory: one son, Chester James Jordan, Jr.; two daughters, Angela Banks and Joann Harvey; eleven grandchildren, James, Chester, Venitia, Jonathan, Shaneeka Jordan, Anthony, Jeffrey and Teairrah Bostick, Ricardo Brown, Jr., Nicole and William Harvey; eleven great-grandchildren; a trusted niece, Virt Lee Livingston; a loving daughter-in-law, Evelyn J. Jordan; a precious son-in-law, Joseph Banks; two close friends, Mr. Sam McCoy and Mr. Frank Martin; along with other relatives and friends.
