

Chino Lucan Williams

June 14, 1977 - September 9, 2009

Chino Lucan Williams, the only son of Ansocoe Talbert and James Williams Jr., was the youngest of these children. Heaven sent down. His angels on September 27, 2009 to call him home. Chino was born and raised in Baltimore, Maryland. He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. Chino was friends with everyone he came in contact with. He was the person you would want beside you when you needed a helping hand. He would give you his best and then pitch in when things started to get rough. He was also a loving, caring and giving person. He will be truly and deeply be missed. He leaves to mourn; his mother, Ansocoe Talbert; father, James Williams Jr., sisters, Latwanda Williams and Takika Williams; niece, Lashae Dixon; nephews, Lee Dixon III, Lequna Dixon and Zion Roberts; a host of aunts, uncles, cousin and friends.

“ I would like to express my sympathy to the Williams' family. When death separates us from our loved ones, especially one so young, deep sorrow can result; that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to 1Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. Also, Daniel 12:2 encourages us with the resurrection hope stating: "Many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. May your cherished memories and God's Word of Truth comfort your heart.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##
