

Christiana Brann

February 5, 1914 - September 22, 2004

Christiana Diana Brann was born on February 5, 1914 in Couva, Trinidad, West Indies to the late Amelia and John Noel. She departed this life on Wednesday, September 22, 2004 in Baltimore, Maryland. Christiana was baptized, “communioned” and confirmed at La Brea Episcopal Church in Trinidad at an early age. She was an accomplished singer in the church choir and enjoyed using her musical talent to glorify her Savior’s name. Christiana often said that it was her faith in the Lord that got her through all of the trials or tribulations that came her way. She attended church faithfully until she was bed-ridden. Her early education was in Trinidad and later she became a certified Home Health Nurse in New York. She dedicated a considerable part of her life to helping and healing others. While she was only blessed with two biological children, she would say that she raised dozens of others over the years. Christiana was passionate about singing, sewing and cake making. She was also devoted to her family and was undoubtedly our stalwart, our rock of Gibraltar and the one that could be depended upon to single-handedly take care of and hold us together. She was, in essence, “our family’s glue.” She leaves to cherish her memory: one sister, Eurice Osborne; two daughters, Juliet Branker and Marva Brann; three grandchildren, Suzette Brann, Dr. Stacy Brann and Kenwin Branker; four great-grandchildren, Juliette Ana-Alicia Branker and Khanya, Orin and Dariya Brann; one son-in-law, Paul Sessomes; three daughters, Mae Barry, Zelma Allen and Sylvia Barney; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. The Bible offers us comfort just at the right time. At Job 14:14, 15 it says, " If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? All the days of my compulsory service I shall wait, Until my relief comes. You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning. " I have found these words a source of strength many times. I hope you will too.##imported-begin##Joseph Hill##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##
