“ My heartfelt sympathy goes out to the entire family. I've know Christille for 2 1/2 years from college where we attended weekly classes and worked on several projects together. She was a diligent student and having her on our team was a pleasure. She spoke often of her love for her son and seeing them together you could see their special bond. Christelle will be missed and thought of often. I wish you all peace and comfort in your memories and I will keep you all in my prayers.##imported-begin##Jeanette Cronise##imported-end##

“ It is with great sadness that we learned of the passing of tiny sweet Christille. The first time she came to Christian Revival, we thought she was just a young girl. Now Nicholas is almost as tall as she. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.##imported-begin##Rev. & Mrs. Charles Curry##imported-end##

“ I have been a classmate at Notre Dame with Christille for the past several years. I was so impressed with her ability to manage her family, work and school successfully. She was certainly dedicated to her son as she often spoke of him in the most loving manner. We will certainly have a void in our classes going forward and will have fond memories of the wonderful person we were blessed to come to know if even just a small part of her life. I will not forget that she was a part of my life albeit for a short time her kind and selflessness will not be forgotten. My deepest sympathy goes to her family and friends. May memories of Christille sustain you through this difficult time and keep her in your lives forever.##imported-begin##Sharon Kemp##imported-end##

“ I got to know Christille as a classmate at Notre Dame. At one point, we worked in the same building, and on occasion would meet for lunch to do homework or ride to class together in the evening. I was always impressed by her quiet strength and determination, and her love for Nicholas and her family. I feel very fortunate and blessed to have known her, even if it were only for a brief time, and I will never forget her. I pray your faith will bring you comfort, and your memories of Christille ease your heartache. You will all be in my thoughts and prayers.##imported-begin##Christine Mettee##imported-end##

“ My heart goes out to Christille's family especially her little boy. Christille was a classmate of mine at the College of Notre Dame. She was also a friend. We spent many nights on the phone talking. She was a caring person and a pleasure to attend college with. May she rest in peace.##imported-begin##Peggy Zorn##imported-end##

“ I extend my sincere sympathy to the family for the loss of their beloved daughter Christille. Christille was such a beautiful and wonderful woman, mother, and friend. I will truly miss her. She was the mother of my grandson Nicholas. My family loved Christille so very much and will miss her greatly. I feel so sad when I know that Christille will not be around to see Nicholas grow up and play baseball, or whatever, but...she knew that if anything ever happened to her, that I would be there for him -- ensuring that he will have the best that I can provide. That the memory of his mother and father will always be apart of his spirit. I am going to miss the talks, the email messages with photos of her and Nicholas, lots of laughter, the rides in the car with Nicholas, shopping, eating seafood, and listening to gospel music. I am happy that she and Nicholas had the opportunity to go to Indiana to visit her grandmother and other relatives recently. The photo of that trip was breathtaking. To God Be The Glory! Christille is now resting in the arms of Jesus. Blessings of Peace, Love, and Comfort to the family. Helen Corbin-White##imported-begin##Helen J. Corbin-White##imported-end##

“ To the Dixon Family, I am at a lost for words. There is no way that Christille will be forgotten. She was a pillar of strength when anyone needed a pillow to cry on. Beautiful and genuine on the inside. We shared many hours on the phone talking about the family, Nicholas, and school. She would always tell me "Aunt Bunny, you are never too old to get your BSN". I would say to her that I am afraid of the young sharp minds, and she reminded me that I was brilliant for my age. God knows how I ache, but he is going to build me up and renew my strength. Eventho 200 miles away I will be there for my nephew Nicholas if need be. I can still visualize us laughing until we cried when we got lost going to the family reunion in 2005 in Pittsburgh. She and Gerald had a line of cars trailing them, so we finally stopped and laughed until we hardly had strength. Love you Christille. “ When Stephanie emailed me about Christille's passing I was in shock. It was just a few months ago when I was emailing her on how to get Lil Nicholas thru the passing of his father. I went to high school with Christille. She was the sweetest girl in school and always had a smile on her face. I was so happy to spend time with her when she came to Indianapolis. I will miss her greatly. My thoughts and prayers are with the family. Rest in peace Christille.##imported-begin##Rachelle Martin-Hill##imported-end##

“ Time is moving on and missing you cannot be put into words. Nicholas is so precious and growing tall. Both you and Gerald knew that he would be smart and say the darnest things that would keep you laughing and loving him so much. I miss you so so much. And of course, I miss my son Gerald. I remember him saying, "Mom, take care of Nicholas". The loss of both of you makes me weep at times, but...I know God is with me. We see Nicholas often now, but...it doesn't take the place of him being with his parents. I hope to be with him during the Christmas holidays. We will keep your quite and beautiful memories fresh for Nicholas as he grows. Rest in peace my dear Christille.##imported-begin##Helen J. White##imported-end##

“ It's me again. I saw Nicholas this past weekend, and he is so precious. He remembers his beloved Mom. We are definitely keeping your memory alive for him. He asked his Aunt Cindy if he could take his vaccum toy to his grandparents' house. He told us that "my Mom bought this for me at Toys R Us. His memory is so vivid. We are making his list of things he would like for Christmas. He still likes spiderman toys. Cindy is planning to get him what he wants. You and Gerald are sorely missed. We will take good care of Nicholas as best we can. Warmly remembered, Mom##imported-begin##Helen J. White##imported-end##

“ May I send condolences to you all. The family of Christille is surrounded by many caring and loving thoughts to help to ease the effect of the broken circle of life cause by death. Christille, living for almost 35 years and touch so many lives is wonderful support for the family and friends. Our Heavenly Father cares as the bible say at 1 Peter 5:7. Imagine the great happiness that will result when dead loved ones are resurrected in the near future, John 5:28.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ Missing you so much Christille! God is so faithful and He knows the plans for our future. Nicholas is in good hands and God is taking care of us all as we mourn the passing of our dear loved ones -- you, Gerald, and grandmother Madeline Corbin who went home to be the Lord on September 30, 2007. Before she left this earth, we re-read the lovely and thoughtful greeting cards you and Gerald gave her on special occasions. Miss your smile, laughter and the fun we shared. “ I have so many wonderful memories of us preparing for Christmas at my house, Cindy's house and Tiffany's. This time last year, we were all excited about you and Nicholas spending Christmas at Cindy and Rick's house. Cindy was just mentioning today about when she and Rick came to pick the two of you up in Baltimore and the nice ride coming back to Waldorf. We miss you and Gerald so much and wish that both of you were here, but...we know you and Gerald are resting in the arms of Jesus. We have lots of photographs of our last Christmas together and will share them with Nicholas to keep your sweetness, kindness, and spirit alive for him now and future. Missing you terribly, Helen (Mom) White###imported-begin###Helen J. White###imported-end###

“ The day after Christmas 2007 and remembering last Christmas when we were all together at Cindy's. We had a wonderful time, but...not knowing that it would be our last time together as a whole family. Nicholas is getting so big and you would be so proud of him - just like you knew he would be -- smart and a good solid little boy. He is witty. We had a wonderful Holiday and looking forward to doing many things with him in the near future. He is beginning to look more and more like Gerald. He is handsome! You are truly missed by all who loved you dearly. May you rest in peace. Always, Helen (Mom) White###imported-begin##Helen J. White###imported-end##

“ Yesterday was the 1st anniversary of your passing. It's been so hard for all of us. You were such a wonderful sweet person. A wonderful Mom to your darling son Nicholas. And, just an all-around sweet person to everyone you came in contact with. Nicholas and I spent yesterday together and he is so adorable -- reminding me of the way you use to laugh, eat, smile, and so many things that I cannot express them all here. We will never forget the joy and happiness you brought to our family and most especially, your son. We will forever keep the memories of you ALIVE!! You are sorely missed. “ Christille, We miss you so much! I think of you everyday and only wish that you were here to see your beautiful and adorable son Nicholas. He was with us last weekend and he is growing up so fast. When he began singing along with a gospel song on the radio, it made my heart sad and happy. It would be something that he would have done if you were here. He can really sing. He wants to join the children's choir at Ebenezer, so, I am planning to sign up both he and cousin Tiara. I know Gerald would be so proud of his son. He loved being a parent. For the short time you had to raise your adorable son, you both did so much with him and he still remembers. He specifically remembers when the both of you rode on the metro rail. Every time we pass a particular station, he recalls the time when the two of you were together on the train. He remembers the time that Gerald took him to the Baltimore Harbor to feed the birds, and play with his plastic boat in the water. We still have the plastic boat. Beautiful memories that are everlasting..... I love and miss both of you soooooo much! I am committed to keep Nicholas's parents' memories alive! Blessings of Peace and Love, Helen (Mom) White###imported-begin##Helen J. White###imported-end##
