“ Our deepest condolences. Lots of memories of my first cousin Christine. Julie and I share in your sorrow. Though we have not resided in Charles City for many years, it is still home and family is still family. Christine was very likely the very last cousin on my father's side of the family that I can remember so, we share in her homegoing with many family members who have no idea who I am. Regardless, family is family therefore, I share in my sorrow.

We will view the homegoing service via social media.

“ We are saddened to hear of the passing of our dear friend. Miss Christine was a joy to be around she always had that wonderful personality. Whenever we were with her and we didn't have Mrs Crump with us she always asked about her. Even with her sickness she was dealing with she always had that beautiful smile. We are praying for you the family that God will give you the strength and comfort you need at this time. Thank you so much for taking good care of your mother.
