

Christine Brooks

February 14, 1927 - September 20, 2005

CHRISTINE JULIA BROOKS was born in Chestertown, MD on February 14, 1927 to Oliver Briscoe and Elsie Briscoe. She departed this life and was called to her heavenly home on September 20, 2005 for eternal rest. "Chris" as she was fondly called was married to the late Clarence Brooks, and out of this union they had one daughter Yancie T. Brooks who preceded them in death in 1993. Christine accepted CHRIST as her LORD and SAVIOR at Bethel A.M.E Church in Chestertown, MD. She knew the power of prayer. Chris was a peacemaker and always had a smile on her face. Upon relocating to Baltimore to seek employment, she worked at several jobs. Her sweetheart Clarence Brooks later joined her in Baltimore and they became man and wife. She leaves to cherish her memory: a granddaughter, Dara James; two sisters-in-law, Solistine Briscoe of Chestertown, MD and Rebecca Beraux and her husband, John; two devoted nieces, Mercedes I. Bordley and her husband, Charles Bordley of Chestertown, MD and Germaye Ross of Baltimore, MD; her nephew, Marcus Freeman of Baltimore, MD; and also four loyal friends, Geraldine White of Baltimore, MD, Hilda Graves of Chestertown, MD, Carl Balark of Baltimore, MD and Nathaniel Woodards of Chestertown, MD; and a host of nephews, nieces, other relatives and friends. She was the last survivor of Elsie Briscoe's children. Her siblings Irving Hamilton, Elizabeth Jones, Oliver Briscoe, Isabella Stewart, and Margaret Ringgold all preceded her in death. We loved Chris, but God loves her best.

“ I would like send my deepest sympathy to the family of Ms. Brooks. The loss of a loved can be devistating, and the comfort of the scriptures give us hope. One scripture that come to mind is John 5:28,29. Death was not part of God's arrangement but one day by means of his kingdom the dead will rise again according to Revelation 21:3,4###imported-begin###K. D. Smith###imported-end###
