“ Friends and Family of Ms. Bynum you have my condolences. May you find hope and comfort in God's word the bible at Rev. 21:4 which shows that the pain we face of losing a love one will not be. May you continue to look to God's word for comfort.##imported-begin##D. Farmer##imported-end##

“ I offer my sympathy to the family and friends of Christine Bynum. It seems unfair that death has the power to take away someone we love. The Bible is comforting in this regard. It promises that our loved ones now dead will live again. You can read these words at John 11:20-27. May you continue to rely and find comfort in reading the Bible.##imported-begin##P Land##imported-end##

“ Do not let your hearts be troubled for she is with the king. Words can not be expressed about how much she will be missed. She was a angel and had a heart of gold. Her time has come for her to be with God and pop. They are looking down on us and saying it's going to be alright. Trust in the lord and he will carry you. Mama is at rest and she knows you all will be alright. Her job on earth is complete just remember she will always be with us in mind, body and soul. Cherish the fond memories that she has touched our hearts with. Keep in mind that God knows best###imported-begin##Sharon Rock###imported-end##

“ I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Christine Bynum. Losing a loved one in death is a painful time. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).###imported-begin##S.
