“ Hey granny I use to sneak out of high school just to meet you. I wish I knew more of you. Didn't have that much time around you. Love you forever

“ Please accept my sincere sympathy for your loss. During the months that follow the funeral, you can still find comfort in the Christian hope of the resurrection. Jesus promises at John 5:28,29: "Do not marvel at this, but the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." Yes, we can see our dead loves ones again and how grateful we should be for the ransom sacrifice of Christ Jesus that made it possible.##imported-begin##A. Robinson##imported-end##

“ May the God of all comfort give you the strength to get through the days ahead, as you mourn the death of your loved one. Jehovah God never desired this sadness for the human family, and he purposes to end all sickness and death in the world forever. Then the Lord's prayer will be fulfilled which says: "Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth; just as it is in heaven. We can imagine heaven to be a very peaceful, tranquil place. So when God's will is done on earth, we can rest assured that there will be peace on earth as well without noone ever dying again. For the bible promises at Rev 21,4 "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away." One day soon, no more sorrow, no more pain. Psalm 37:111 says, "But the meek ones themselves will possess the earth, And they will indeed find their exquisite delight in the abundance of peace. Please find comfort in the bible's wonderful promises, which come from the God of love 1st John:4,8###imported-begin##R Johnson###imported-end##
