

Christine E. Franklin

May 19, 1934 - January 25, 2003

Rev. Christine Elizabeth Robertson Franklin, daughter of the late Deacon George and Mary Robertson, was born May 19, 1934 in Crewe, Virginia. "Chris", as she was fondly called, was one of fifteen children. She departed this life suddenly on January 24, 2003. Rev. Franklin graduated from Luther A. Foster High School, Nottoway county, Virginia and Baltimore School of the Bible, Baltimore, Maryland. In 1949, Rev. Franklin married George Franklin and from this union a loving daughter, Carol Ann Franklin was born. For many years Rev. Franklin earned her living as a private duty nurse. After years of nursing, she retired and changed careers, going to work for Baltimore County Credit Union, where she worked until retiring in 2002 due to health reasons. In 1987, Rev. Franklin preached her initial sermon at the Pillar of Truth Christian Community Church where she remained a dedicated and faithful servant until her demise. She leaves to mourn: three daughters, Carol Ann Keyes from Richmond, Virginia, Peggy Roberts and Denise Harris of Baltimore, Maryland; one son-in-law, Edward L. Keyes; two sisters, Vivian Watson of Crewe, Virginia and Barbara Smith of Decatur, Illinois; three brothers, Rev. Lloyd Robertson, Ellsworth Robertson and Warren Robertson and Jean Robertson; one brother-in-law, Percell Smith; grandchildren, Edward M. Martin Jr., Joseph L. Keyes, Deshawn Blackmon, Franklin Blackmon, Anthony Harris, Tavon Lester, Wanda Johnson and Vetta Henderson; twelve great-grandchildren, other relatives and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.
