“ To all the Gamble children, I am so sorry for the loss of your mother, my loss and everyone who loved her so dearly. I will truly miss my mom and friend, I really can't imagine my life without Chris in it. I will cherish all the times we shared together, watching Sunday night movies over the phone discussing it the whole movie. I love her so very much and I will remember her for the kind loving person she was, and may we each practice having more of the kindness, love and compassion my mom and dear friend left as a legacy for all of us. I love you all dearly you have welcomed me into your family and I thank you. Love Phyllis##imported-begin##Phyllis Oliver##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, It will be almost 3 years since you have seen your loved one. But this doesn't have to be permanent. The Bible speaks of a time "when all in memorial tombs will come out" at John 5:28, 29. Please read your Bible for comfort and draw close to God##imported-begin##D. Samuel##imported-end##
