

Christine E. Holman

September 15, 1924 - April 17, 2018

Christine Eleanor Holman, one of seven children born to the late Alexander and Mabel Jones on September 15, 1924 in Baltimore, Maryland. On April 17, 2018, she responded to her Savior's call and entered in through the gates of the city called heaven.

She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System and graduated from Frederick Douglass High School. On September 26, 1947, she was united in Holy Matrimony to Henry Holman and from this union came two sons, Elroy and Steven Holman. She worked for many years as a seamstress at London Fog until her retirement and made her own fashionable clothing including her coats.

She was raised in the Maryland Church of God in Christ, then attended and was baptized at the Mount Moriah Church in Baltimore, Maryland.

Later, Christine became one of the founding members of the True Fellowship Church of God in Christ. She was a trustee board member, faithful member of the usher board, worked diligently in the kitchen as a cook; cleaned the church with her sisters Mary Louise and Rita; volunteered every summer at vacation bible school and children's summer program.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Henry Holman and her two sons,

Steven and Elroy. Also, she was preceded in death by her parents; two brothers and three sisters.

Christine Holman leaves to cherish her memory: her sister, Rita Baylor; three grandsons, Garlyn Holman (Kimberly) (Boston, MA), Ivan Holman (Farhana) (PA), and Donte Holman; sister-in-law, Ola Jones; daughter-in-law, Ursula Holman; great-grandchildren, nieces, nephew, cousins, other relatives, The True Fellowship COGIC Church Family and many supportive friends and neighbors.
