“ To The Blocker Family, Please accept my deepest sympathy for the loss of your dear loved one. It is only natural that we yearn to see our loved ones again since God put time indefinite into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). The Bible teaches about a future time when those in the memorial tombs will come out by means of a resurrection (John5:28-29). Continue to rely on the "God of all comfort" (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you (Psalm55:22). Warmest regards, C. Murphy##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. 1 Corinthians 15:26 rightly declares that death is our "enemy" it also informs us that death itself will one day be destroyed. Also, Acts 24:15 declares "there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from this Bible based hope.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ I offer my warm and sincere condolences for your loss. Losing a loved one really hurts us like nothing else we ever go through, and at such times the bible can be a great source of encouragement and comfort. The bible is the only book that gives us the answers we seek; such as, why do we die? Where are the dead? Will we ever see them again. Through my study of the bible, I have been fortunate enough to find the answers to these questions. For instance the bible lets us know that the dead are asleep in God's memory, and one day his son Jesus will wake them up from their deep sleep. John 5:28,29 tells us that those dead in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus's voice and come out. Most definitely we will see them again, and they will never have to die ever again. What a marvelous hope Jehovah has provided for us, and made possible through the ransom of his son, Christ Jesus. May you find much comfort in the hope of the resurrection, as well as in your precious memories. I would like to extend the invitation of a free home bible study. I will even supply you with a bible at no charge. If you are interested, and I hope you are, please contact me on my e-mail, and I will share many wonderful things with you concerning God's purpose. Take care family, and may Jehovah comfort you as only he can.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
