

Christine Morgan

August 26, 1928 - July 1, 2011

CHRISTINE MORGAN, daughter of the late Mary and Budd Williams, was born August 26, 1928 in Roanoke, Virginia. She departed this life on July 1, 2011 after struggles with a lengthy illness.

At the age of 9, she was baptized at the Zion Baptist Church and she remained a member there until she was a teenager. After Sunday services, Christine along with her siblings, would go to Jumbos to purchase hot dogs and sodas. She later attended Faith Baptist Church, where she met her best friend Doris Tyler, who preceded her in death. While at the Future Lochearn Nursing Home, she attended services at the Victory Temple Baptist Church.

She was educated at Dunbar High School in Baltimore, Maryland. After school she enjoyed participating in extra curricular activities at Chick Web's Recreational Center. There she enjoyed swimming, games, dancing, and ping pong. She also enjoyed attending shows at Royal Theater mingling with the guests that came into the city along with a host of her famous friends; Billie Holliday, The Orioles, Chick Web, and The Red Fox. She loved to travel, especially to her eateries like Sampson's and Nate's and Leon's. During that time she met Leonard York Matthews and they had a son, Leonard, (Pookie) who preceded her in death Pookie had a son, Leonard, affectionately known as PJ, who also preceded her in death . Christine had a great sense of humor and would do anything for anybody . She will be surely missed by her family and friends.

She leaves to mourn; two grandchildren , Chris and Lynn, a sister Isadora Byers, a host of nieces and nephews and other relatives

“ You don't know me but as one of Jehovah's Witnesses I would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 2yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again! Any Jehovah's Witnesses that you meet would love to show you in the Bible the truth about death! Again so sorry for your loss!!
