

Christine Novella Stanley

May 27, 1944 - October 7, 2015

Christine N. Stanley, daughter of the late Albert J. Wesson and Alice Wesson was born on May 27th 1944. After a short illness, Our Father asked her to come Home to Glory where she would find comfort and her beloved family members who have preceded her in sunset on October 7th 2015.

Christine was absolutely a strong individual in all her endeavors; securing her family, a diligent friend and an advocate for those in need. She had no apprehensions in offering advice or guidance when there was discord or question. All of this was our gift

“ We extend our prayers to Chris's family in this time of pain. Thank you God for the gift of her warm heart, her beautiful smile and her zest for life. Christine was intelligent, informed, a hard worker and a "True Care Giver!". She wanted the best for her family, her friends and those she cared for. Her love for music and dancing made her a joy to be around. She was a globe trotter, a student of life, a classy dresser and she was HONEST.
My little sister from another mother will remain in our hearts and in our memories until we meet again.
With all God's blessing,
Lucinda and the entire Queen family

“ The family has the sincere condolences of the Garner family. We are sorry for your loss but realize she was a strong black woman and put up a good fight. My mom just mentioned that she and my dad had a good relationship and that made me think a part of that bond was their desire to keep the neighborhood clean and doing it themselves to make sure that it was. So I will miss her being on the steps, when she wasn't sweeping or picking up litter on street or sidewalk, and not just in front of her door only! Our prayers go out to the family and other friends who also share fond memories and wish her well as she makes her final transition to be with God. Our prayers also for peace and comfort to the family, remembering her love and strength, and that you feel God's presence and hers when you need them most.

“ Please accept my sincere sympathy on the loss of Ms. Christine Stanley. Even though I did not know Ms. Stanley, I know the pain of losing a loved one in death. The Bible's promise of a resurrection has brought me much comfort. At Daniel 12:2 it says, "And many of those asleep in the dust of the death will wake up." It is my sincere prayer that you are comforted by this promise.

“ *Whose woods these are I think I know.
His house is in the village, though;
He will not see me stopping here
To watch his woods fill up with snow.
My little horse must think it queer
To stop without a farmhouse near
Between the woods and frozen lake
The darkest evening of the year.*

*He gives his harness bells a shake
To ask if there's some mistake.
The only other sound's the sweep
Of easy wind and downy flake.*

*The woods are lovely, dark and deep,
But I have promises to keep,
And miles to go before I sleep,
And miles to go before I sleep*
