

Christoper Allen Hartwell

March 26, 1988 - January 25, 2007

Christopher A. Hartwell, beloved son of the late Donna M. Pierce and Allen Hartwell, Jr., was born on March 26, 1988 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on Thursday, January 25, 2007 suddenly in his sleep. He graduated with honors from Northwestern Senior High School in Prince Georges County on June 1, 2006. Chris, as he was affectionately called by his family and friends, was in the process of enrolling in Catonsville Community College to further his education in Business Administration. Chris was unlike most teens his age instead of sports, clubs and girls, his semester off from school he lovingly spent taking care of his elderly Grandmother. Chris was a kind and gentle spirit. He loved earnestly, with an open heart. He grew to be a respectful and responsible young man, who would have made his late mother proud. Chris leaves to cherish his loving memory: two grandmothers, Della M. Pierce and Retha Hartwell; his father Allen Hartwell, Jr.; one sister, Shawnte' M. Pierce; three uncles Cedric T. Pierce, Melvin R. Pierce and Rodney Hartwell; four aunts, Donna, Marsha, Gwendolyn, and Joanne Hartwell; and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest and most heartfelt condolences to your family for this very sad loss. I am so very sorry. I can imagine how you feel to lose a son so very young and so suddenly. I can really sympathize, because my only son died at a young age as well 10 years ago. What has helped me to cope is knowing I will see him again, because this is God's wonderful promise, which he has instilled in my heart through my study of the bible. A bible study builds up your faith, because it gives concrete evidence of a loving creator who cares so much about us; and it gives evidence that whatever he promises will come true. Isaiah 55:11. In his word he promises a resurrection for the dead, which he made possible by the precious blood of his son, Christ Jesus who gave his life so that all might live. One day, according to Rev.21:3,4, he will wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more."These former things will have passed away. I hope this brings you some comfort to know that one day you can be with your son again forever, to see his beautiful smile, and hear his laughter again. May Jehovah God wrap his loving arms around you until that joyous day arrives.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ My condolences to you for the loss of your loved one. I was really sad to see how young he was. But, it made me think of the young people that Jesus Christ brought back to life. At Luke 7:14-17 Jesus brought back to life a young man who had been his mother's only child. At Mark 5:41,42 Jesus raised a young girl to life who had died. In both cases there was extreme joy when these miracles took place. These people came back to life on earth. The Bible teaches that resurrections will take place again on earth in God's due time. When this occurs the earth will be a beautiful paradise. (See Luke 23:43 and Matthew 5:5 and Psalm 37:29) It is my hope that you receive much comfort and strength from these loving promises found in the Holy Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
