

Christoper Alan White

December 19, 1992 - July 26, 2017

CHRISTOPHER ALAN WHITE, son of Alan Denver and Cheryl Lynn White, was born December 19, 1992 and departed this life Wednesday July 26, 2017.

Chris received his education in the Baltimore County Public School System. He graduated in the class of 2013 from Woodlawn High School. He was employed at "Roland Park Bagel Company" as an Assistant Manager. He was excited because he loved eating good food, and had an enormous appetite.

Christopher, also known as "YK", was an artist. He had talent as a singer, song writer, rapper and even produced beats. He made lots of music. One of his songs was titled "If I Should", he talked about his life passing on and being with the Lord and how most things in life are often not fully understood until the moment that it's gone...His fun times were also spent playing cards, skating, and hanging out with his boys. He loved sports, watching the discovery and history channel, and working out at the gym. He loved his family and would say "Family Over Everything". "Chi Chi", as he was called by his brother, was a free spirit. Life was one big party when he wasn't working. He had a good heart and would help you in anyway that he could if possible. He liked having fun, was a great hugger (I called them power hugs because of how much love and strength you felt behind them). He loved to laugh! He made friends everywhere he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was a good son, brother, grandson, uncle, nephew, cousin, and friend.

Chris leaves to mourn: his parents, Alan and Cheryl White; his sisters, Ta'Rhonda Mayberry and Chanel White; his brothers, Vacher Price Jr., Shevin Greene, Brandon Coates, and Loren White; his grandmother, Margaret White; a host of nieces and nephews, and other family members and friends.
