

Christopher D. Nobles

March 6, 1953 - February 6, 2007

CHRISTOPHER DAVON NOBLES, son of the late Joe D. and Dollie E. Nobles, was born on March 6, 1953 in Baltimore, Maryland. He received his education at Northwestern High School in Baltimore. Christopher enlisted in the United States Army, and after basic training he was assigned to a unit in Germany. Upon leaving the military, he was employed at Dett Set for many years. He also worked for a while at Random House Publishing Company and St. Mark's on the Hill Church. Whatever the task, Chris was always willing to give a helping hand to friends, family and his neighbors. After accepting Christ as his personal Savior, he was baptized on July 27, 1999. This was truly a blessed day for Christopher and his family. Chris was a member of Union Street United Methodist Church in Westminster, Maryland where he sang in the church choir. In 2006, he joined St. Timothy's Christian Baptist Church in Baltimore. Christopher entered into holy matrimony with the love of his life, Wanda Stuart, at St. Mark's on the Hill Church in Pikesville, Maryland. Wanda preceded him in death on July 24, 2006. Chris loved reading his bible, spending time with his family, and he enjoyed watching movies. Whenever there were family celebrations or any family gatherings, Chris would be there with his special smile. Chris was a very caring and loving son who regularly checked on his parents to make sure they were all right. Chris departed this life on February 6, 2007. He leaves to cherish his memory: one son, Michael; daughters, Christine, Cassandra, Nadeen and Moneeke; brothers, Marvin, Sr., Linwood, Erskine, Sr. and Joe, Jr.; sisters, Emma and Deborah; brothers-in-law, Milt and Ervin; sisters-in-law, Mary, Martha, Sarah, Barbara, Brenda, and Gertrude; three grandchildren, nephews, nieces, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Christopher D. Nobles

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss, and please know dear family, that Christopher will live again by means of the resurrection promised in the bible. Acts 24,15. Hold on, dear ones, because relief from sorrow and pain is on the way, Isaiah 25,8.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Hello! Noble's ! May I send my fellow feeling to all. It will soon be a year since Christopher died. Imagine the happiness that will result when the dead loved ones are resurrected, little ones, young ones ,parents, grandparents, etc. I am looking forward to that in the near future as the bible say at John 5:28. Rev.21:3-5, "ALL THINGS WILL BE MADE NEW".I hope these few thoughts will be uplifting to read. Sincerely, Lillian Crosby.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ May God Be With Us During This Time of Sorrow.##imported-begin##Ervin##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. There is much hope for our loved ones who have been taken away by death. Acts 24:15 lovingly tells us - "There is going to be a resurrection." The Bible reveals that will take place in a new world with the prospect of no more sickness, death, sorrow or pain. (See Revelation 21:3-5, Isaiah 65:17) I hope you and your family receive much comfort and strength as you think on these wonderful promises in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Hi Deborah, I am sorry to hear about the lost of your brother. You and the rest of the family are in our prayers. I am sorry that I cannot make it to the funeral, but just know that you all are in our thoughts. Be encouraged and take care. I will talk with you later. Your cousin, Sonia##imported-begin##Sonia##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To my Brother Chris Until we meet again, I will miss your calls updating me on what is going on in your life. I will miss the way you laughed—placing the tip of your tongue on the bottom of your two front teeth, wobbling your legs, with deep staccato sounds coming from your larynx. I will miss seeing your tall slim frame entering through the door at family gatherings. I will miss your sharing your new ideas for various gadgets. I will miss your melancholy demeanor that was always thirsting for a funny moment or an uplifting word. I will miss seeing your helpful assistance to family, friends, and neighbors. I will miss the way you always ended your calls “ I just called to say I love you.” I will just—miss you! Until we meet again, I will miss you, however, because you knew “The Way” on this side, I do know that we will meet again in the presence of our Heavenly Father and our loved ones who know the Lord and I look forward to that day! Love always, Deborah##imported-begin##Deborah##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM