

Christopher M. Evans

July 28, 1989 - April 28, 2017

Christopher Michael Evans, son of the late James Henry Evans and Robin Ann Rhodes was born on July 28, 1989 in Baltimore, Maryland. His name was given specifically by his mother because it meant “Christ Like and Holy Unto The Lord.” Chris departed this life on April 28, 2017 due to a Massive Heart Attack while helping to save his friend.

Chris received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He received his High School Diploma through the Department of Education in 2009, as well as receiving his Certification as an Automotive Technician in 2013 while incarcerated in the Maryland Correctional System. However; through all his trials and struggles Chris never gave up on accomplishing his dreams and goals. Chris accepted Christ at the tender age of 6 years old while attending the Jones Tabernacle Baptist Church in Baltimore, Maryland. Chris was also a member of the Morning Star Baptist Church in Catonsville, Maryland.

Chris was a loving son, brother, nephew, uncle and friend. Chris left a loving impression on everyone he encountered and had a smile so infectious it was remembered by all that knew him. Although Chris never had children of his own, he was a devoted uncle to his niece Faith and nephew.

He leaves to cherish his memory: His mother, Robin Ann Rhodes; his sister, Shenika Lynn Foster; nephew, Nakai Foster; niece, Faith Randall; seven aunts; six uncles; and a host of cousins, family and friends.

He is preceded in death by his grandmother, Erma Rhodes; grandfather, Charles Rhodes Sr; and Janice Griffin.

Son I miss you so much today that I almost can't breathe. I am so trying to keep you physically here with me but I just can't let go. You were away from me for so long and now you can't come back. I need to see your smile and to hear your voice. I will never stop loving or missing you. I love you my Christopher Micheal.
