

Christopher Fowlkes

April 21, 1947 - August 17, 2005

Christopher Fowlkes, called Chris by his family and Curtis by his friends, was born on April 21, 1947, in Baltimore, Maryland to Hazel and Bernard Fowlkes. He was preceded in death by his mother, Hazel. He received his education in Baltimore, Maryland. He graduated from Southern High School in 1965. He worked as a steel worker, a chauffer, a jewelry maker, and in the Baltimore City Schools (Food Services Worker). Further, he owned and operated his own cab service, before that he drove cabs for other companies. He attended Hemingway Temple Methodist Church as a child and later he gave his life to Christ. Chris enjoyed life, he was a jokester, he was very outgoing and fun loving. He loved to give even though he had very little to give. Additionally, he loved to cook. Further, he loved to sing even though he couldn't carry a tune. He leaves to mourn two sons, Christopher and Earl Fowlkes both of Baltimore, MD; two granddaughters, DAsia Fowlkes and Tiamber Pointer of Baltimore, MD; one grandson, Curtis Fowlkes of Baltimore, MD; four sisters, June Radcliffe, Diana Clayborne, Geraldine Clayborne and Romaine Matthews all of Baltimore, MD, and three brothers, Daniel Fowlkes of Syracuse, NY, Tyrone Fowlkes of Newark, DE, Earl Fowlkes of Baltimore, MD. and one brother, Bernard Pendleton who preceded him in death, three sisters-in-law, Jacquelyn Fowlkes of Syracuse, NY, Arleen Fowlkes of Newark, DE and Lillian Pendleton of Roselle, NJ, two brothers-in-law, Theodore Radcliffe and Webster Clayborne both of Baltimore, MD; four nieces, Donna, Cynthia, Shynetta and Michelle, eight nephews, James Jr., Theodore III, Troy, Daryl, Derek, Tracy, Douglas and Michael, four aunts and three uncles and a host of family and friends. We believe that God never makes a mistake. He just makes the final decision. God's ever lasting love will ensure comfort and peace to our beloved brother (Chris).

Tribute Wall

“ Christopher Fowlkes

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ Christopher Fowlkes

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I would like to send my condolences at a time of much heartache and grief. I pray that the comfort of God will bring the healing to all those affected over this lost. How blessed we all are to know despite the painful effects of death our God Jehovah have promised a relief from our enemy death. Rev. 21:3-4 states death will no longer exist and will no longer cause mourning nor out cry or pain anymore. He say's death will be swallowed up according to Is. 25:8-9. However Jehovah's greatest promise he say's, the dead will live again according to Is. 26:19. That is truly a wonderful hope. Our very loved ones lost to death will live again. Yes their state is temporary like a sleep.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ We were saved in this hope; but hope that is seen is not hope, for when a man sees a thing, does he hope for it?”—Rom. 8:24, NW. HOPE could never exist in the universe without Jehovah, the great Source of everlasting life, “the God who gives hope.” (Rom. 15:13, NW) In the darkest hour of mankind’s history, when Adam and Eve rebelled against their Creator, bringing sin and death to their offspring, Jehovah saw the need of a hope and in his loving-kindness provided it. That sublime hope, first disclosed almost 6,000 years ago, is filled today with dynamic and protecting power for those loving and searching after righteousness. Its power, activated by an understanding of God’s written Word, impels a Christian to godly action, sustains him when under trial and directs him safely along the narrow path that leads to never-ending life in Jehovah’s new world.##imported-begin##S.T##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family of Mr. Fowlkes, please accept my deepest sympathy for the loss of your father, brother, and friend. Even though I didn't have the privelege of knowing Mr. Fowlkes, it sounds like he was a great guy; a "jack of all trades". If I may impart an encouraging scripture with you it would be the one at John 5:28,29 which reads, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear my voice and come out..." If you can imagine with your mind's eye, a reunion with Mr. Fowlkes and all those others death has taken from you. It would seem impossible would it not? Well, we have a promise from Jesus himself that through Almighty God, Jehovah our loved ones will live again. Another promise is given at Isaiah 26:19 which says, "Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine-they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, you residents in the dust!..." Again, another promise of seeing our loved ones. In neither of these verses does it mentioned that we will meet up in heaven. No, they will be brought back right here on earth under God's righteous kingdom that we pray for in "The Lord's Prayer." It is my hope that these scriptures have encouraged you. Please compare these verses to your copy of the bible and see these wonderful truths firsthand. (Psalms 83:18)##imported-begin##Denise Dukes##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM