

Christopher M. Willis

July 26, 1965 - January 7, 2002

Christopher Maurice Willis, son of Demetria E. and John R. Taylor, was born on July 26, 1965 in Cheverly, Maryland. He departed this life on January 9th after suffering a heart attack. He was educated at Fairmont Heights High School, Automation Academy for Nursing and Tractor-Trailer Driving School of Laurel, Maryland. During his working career he has been a nursing assistant, truck driver, bus driver and a gasoline tractor-trailer driver. He was married to his best friend, Magnolia E. Willis, for seven years. Chris took no stuff or abuse from anyone, but had a warm and caring heart with special care given always to his family and close friends. He leaves to mourn and miss him: his wife, Magnolia E. Willis; his parents, John R. and Demetria E. Taylor; his grandmother, Doris M. Williams; his brother and sister, Eric M. Tolson and Sgt. Terrinita Smith; his nephew, Eric Tolson Jr.; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephew, other relatives and friends. So many memories, now trapped in my mind, wishing for a few more hours of your time. Remembering all the joy you would give from within, wishing for our family to bond in unity, again. I know I'll see you soon one day... Now God's journey will lead your way. Time may pass, but our LOVE for you will continue to grow stronger, and the troubles of life, you'll have to fight no longer. "Chris" would always protect his family, till the end, and now a better place for him can now begin. In our hearts, is where you'll stay, I'll see you at home, soon someday. We love you, Shantelle Clintina
