To the family of Mr. Middleton, I am so sorry to hear of the passing of your dear loved one. Surely, death is not an easy thing to cope with , especially because death in the bible is said to have not been intended for humans. However, the bible also speaks of a resurrection in the future that will awake all those sleeping in death. So, while losing a loved one is hard just remember that death is not the end result or the period rather it is the comma and a great promise is awaiting the future.
