

Christopher James Snead

December 16, 1972 - January 11, 2022

Christopher James Snead was born on December 16, 1972, to the late Frances Diana Wimbush and Earl Young, Sr., in Richmond, Virginia. Educated in the Henrico County Public School system, Chris graduated from Henrico High School and later attended Norfolk State University.

Christopher James Snead departed his this life suddenly on the morning of January 11, 2022.

He is preceded in death by his mother, Frances D. Wimbush, maternal grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Dowel Johnson, paternal grand-parents Mr. and Mrs. Henry Edward Young, Sr. and father-in-law, Henry J. Callis.

Chris was a devoted husband, father, son, brother, uncle and friend. After several years of attending faithfully, he became an active member of The Saint Paul's Baptist Church (CRE) in Richmond, VA on November 22, 2015. Employed under the Department of Juvenile Justice, Chris worked at Beaumont and Bon Air Correctional Centers for 15 years working his way up the ranks to Community Coordinator befriending many who became like family over the years. For 12 years, Chris coached football and mentored many children of the Metropolitan Youth Football League for the Chamberlayne Packers. Among those he coached were his very own sons, Keyondre and Ky'mani—each from the time they were 5 years of age. When he was not on the field coaching, he could often be found cooking in the concession stand of Klehr Field in Chamberlayne Farms. Chris was happiest when he was cooking and watching people get their stomachs full off of whatever culinary masterpiece he might be preparing for the day. Affectionately known as “a gentle giant” or “big teddy bear,” Chris had a heart of gold and would help anyone in need. He welcomed everyone with open arms and a warm smile. He was definitely a warm hearted friend and family man. He will surely be missed by many who knew him.

Chris leaves his precious memories to his devoted wife of 15 years, Narita, three sons, Antwontan, Keyondre and Ky'mani; granddaughter, Har'mani Thompson; godson, Tristian Bruce; fathers, Emmett Wimbush, James Snead (Shellawease) and Earl Young, Sr. (Karen); siblings; Tyrone Snead, Nakita Snead (Tony), Jennifer Snead, Michael Wimbush (Stephanie), Erica Wright, Kevonnie Shelton, Earl Young, Jr; Keisha Young, and Shannon Johnson; sister-in-law, Silena (Defonte) Motley; his mother-in-love, Bernathia Callis, best friends for over 40 years, Anthony and Tiffaney Bruce; Richard (Karen) Athy; Andrew L. Harvey; sister/cousin Katina “Lew Lew” Logan (Durand) and barber/friend of 20 years, Richard (Kelley) Williams, along with a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Chris when we were both Hearings Sergeants for DJJ and again when BJCC closed and we were both Community Coordinators at BAJCC. He was always kind and caring...a gentle soul. We connected again as members of the same church family and our children singing in the Joy Choir. It is a small world after all, but the world was better because he was in it. To Narita and their boys, I pray that God gives you comfort, strength, and peace today and in the days to come. He is always with you!

“ I don't even know where to begin nor do I have the words to truly express what you mean to me, fon and the girls. This was so sudden, we just talk to you the night before. So many memories, so much laughter, so many hard times we all rolled through together. What brings us joy in the mist of this pain is that you are with your beautiful mom dancing in heaven and laughing with my father. Rest assured there will be a village around my sister and the boys. We love you, we miss you, we will forever say your name. Love Kimia, Priya, Defonte and I.

“ My deepest condolences to the Snead family. I have been working with Snead since the day he joined the Beaumont JCC family, we were transferred over to Bon Air JCC together. It was always a joy working with you. Our conversations were always about our own kids. You and Bruce shared such a close bond even at work. You both displayed the epitome of what true friendship is supposed to look like. It was a pleasure working with you. Until we meet again my friend.

“ What can I say.. to my best friend I will truly miss you more than you know. We have been there for each other through thick and then. I wish I had known that the last conversation we had was going to be it. We laughed so much for the last time we talked. Our moms were best friends and we grew into our friendship. Tristan asks about you every day. You were a friend like no other. I thank you for being you. Until we meet again I will do my best to make sure your sons are good always. My heart is truly torn.

“ To my big brother Chris, Thank you for being a father figure to Jhase, and Tori. Anytime that I couldn't handle a situation with one of the kids, I know you were a phone call away. If I mention I'm gonna call uncle Chris, The first response from the kids was "no no"please don't call uncle Chris. They knew what time it was. I know you are in heaven with mama having a party. Give her the biggest hug and kiss for us until we meet again.

Love you, Jennifer, Jhase and Victoria

“ My sincerest condolences to the family. I will always think of Chris as "Sgt. Snead", with memories of working with him at Beaumont JCC. He was good with the youth, and with everyone he worked with. He was always quick with a smile, a laugh, and an offer to assist wherever needed. He will be greatly missed.

“ Snead. You were a great man with an even greater heart. You wanted to make everyone that you loved or considered a friend happy. Your tenacity to keep going regardless of your challenges is to be admired. Thankfully there is no stress in paradise with our Heavenly Father. Life will not be the same without you. Take your rest and hug your mother tight when you get to your heavenly home.

“ Chris. My brother. My cousin. The talks. The laughs. The cries. The conversations of why’s. I’m so thankful that you have peace now but at the same time my heart aches to get one more phone call from you. This has taught me so much Chris. I love you. I’ll miss you. But I thank God for the time He gave me with you.

Love Always,
