

Christopher L. Taylor

February 22, 1965 - September 12, 2015

Christopher L. Taylor.....Born on February 22, 195 in Rocky Mount N.C. to William and Mary Taylor. He was next to the oldest son of 5 siblings. He transitioned to his new life on September 12, 2015 after a sudden death at Johns Hopkins Bay View Medical Center.

He grew up and was raised at an early age in Baltimore, Maryland surrounded by many family and friends. He was a devoted and loving father who loved playing football and spending time with his family and friends. He was really close with his brother Larry, if you saw Chris you knew Larry wasn't too far behind. He was very respectful and was loved by everyone who knew him.

After graduating from Edmondson High School he worked many years at Lemar Paint Company. In 2009 he moved to North Carolina where he met the love of his life Barbara Knight and together they were blessed with a son Jamal Taylor. He was a dedicated employee at QVC in North Carolina until his death.

Chris leaves to cherish his memory, his loving and devoted parents, William and Mary Taylor of Baltimore; two sons, Chris Taylor Jr. of Baltimore and Jamal Taylor of North Carolina; two brothers, the late William Taylor J. and Larry Taylor of Baltimore; two sisters, Mary Taylor-Arrington (Ricky) of Greenville North Carolina and Diane Taylor of Baltimore; three nephews, the late Donnell Carter, Darylwin Boykin and Larry Taylor, Jr.; two great nephews Donnell Jr. and Darius Carter; two great nieces, Madison and Makayla Boykin and a host of aunts, uncles, family and friends.
