“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. First Corinthians 15:26 reveals the death is our enemy that Almighty God will one day destroy. There is much hope for our loved ones who have been taken by death. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "...there is going to be a resurrection..." May you receive much comfort and strength from friends, family and the many loving promises found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Dear family, I am so sorry for your loss. Death is truly something we can never get used to. None of us want to lose our loved ones. It hurts so very much. Did you know that this was not God's purpose for us? Jehovah desires that all mankind live forever in peace and happiness. That is why we pray the Lord's prayer, so that God's will will be done here on earth just as it is in heaven. There's no suffering or dying in heaven, and one day there will be none on this earth. That is why Psalm 37:29 says, "The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it." Then those who have died will come back to life. The Apostle Paul said at Acts 24:15; "I have hope towards God that there is going to be a resurrection. So I pray that the hope of being with your loved one again brings you comfort and helps you to go on.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
