

Clara Diggs

February 1, 1938 - August 3, 2004

Clara Diggs was born on February 1, 1938 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Bernice and Jose Lopez. She departed this life after a bitter short battle with cancer and was called home to glory on Tuesday, August 3, 2004 at 10:20 a.m. Clara was raised and grew up in Turners Station, Maryland. She was educated in the Baltimore County school system and married shortly after her schooling. Her union to the late George "Gus" Diggs Sr. produced five children, George, Chris, Michael, Vaughn and Reginald. The family moved to Baltimore City and Clara began to work in many departments within the city. She retired from the Maryland Penitentiary as a Medical Clerk in 1991. Although, Clara had to face many adversities in life, such as the union with Gus not lasting and a twenty-six year fight with Lupus, she always had such a positive outlook on life. Her wit and sense of humor could warm the most hardened of hearts. It was in this time of life, 1974 that she met and fell in love with her devoted life's companion Jack Harkless. It was with Jack that Clara had a constant partner in life. Clara will be remembered for her wonderful sense of humor, her intelligence and her creativity. She quilted, sewed upholstery and made jewelry; designed a doll collection and miniature dollhouses; and this is just to name a few of her many talents. Her siblings that preceded her will warmly greet Clara; Millard Lopez, Aretha Lopez Craig and Antonia "Sissy" Pack. She leaves to celebrate and remember her life; her life mate, Jack Harkless; four sons, George, Michael, Vaughn and Reginald; daughter, Chris; two sisters, Lolita Bagley and Cynthia Carter; brother, Joseph

Lopez; three brothers-in-law, Millard Pack, James Ed Craig and James Bagley; daughter-in-law, Charlotte Diggs; eight grandchildren; two great-grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.
