“ My sincere condolences to the family. In difficult times such as this, it is comforting to know that the holy scriptures can be a source of comfort. John 11:25 expresses a resurrection hope that we all can look for to in the future. Please read Jesus Christ expressions about the resurrection at John 11:20-27. May you continue to rely and find comfort from the Holy Scriptures.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##

“ It's very sad when we lose a loved one in death. My deepest sympathy goes out to your family. It's comforting to know that we have the sure hope of the ressurection, an opportunity to be with our loved ones who have died once again. Very soon God promises, at Rev21:3,4 that death will be no more. I hope this comforts you as it has comforted my family in times past. Take care.###imported-begin##Rita Johnson###imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy that we never get used to. But the Bible gives us hope for a resurrection at John 5:28-29 where Jesus promises that, "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". This scripture has brought comfort to many. I hope that this will comfort you as well###imported-begin##Senita Swann###imported-end##

“ Shontrea, I wish I could have been there for you, but you know that my prayers were with you and your family. Just remember, you all loved her but GOD loved her best and he was picking a rose out of his rose garden to take home. She will be missed, but let her legacy lives on through you.##imported-begin##Samantha Reaves##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Sending my condolences to you all. Ms. Clara wa 82 years old when the circle of life was broken. Living in these last days as the bible say give us the time to have a wonderful relationship with our creator of all things, Ps. 150:6. Imagine the happiness to be enjoyed when the dead are raised back to life never to die again, 1 Cor.15:26, our enemy will be brought to nothing for ever. I hope these bible base thoughts will be support as time keep moving on in life journey.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##
