

Clara A. Dyson

July 28, 1928 - January 25, 2018

Clara Ann Brown the oldest of three daughters Charlotte and Christina (preceded in death) was born on Saturday July 28, 1928 in Kinsale, Virginia, to the late Leslie and Elenora Brown. Clara accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior at a young age and on January 25, 2018 Jesus Christ lovingly reached down, took Clara by her hand and led her to her heavenly home where she was reunited with her husband Jerome Dyson and other loved ones who had gone to Heaven before her.

Clara attended elementary school in Potomac, Virginia and later moved to Baltimore City to continue her middle and high school education graduating from Frederick Douglas High School in 1947. Clara worked at Camps Manufacturing Company and various other companies until retirement.

Clara married James Lewis and out of there union the beautiful Valerie "Bunnie" Moore was born October 14, 1947. On August 25, 1956 Clara married the love of her life the late Jerome Pynes Dyson and out of their union the beautiful Beverly Charise Peters was born March 5, 1958.

Clara's love for our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ was evident by the unconditional love she extended towards others and the fact that when faced with life's challenges rather than complain she bore her pain with a beautiful smile, prayed and put her trust in God to work everything out. Clara was a kind, beautiful, devoted daughter, wife, mother, mother-in-love, grandmother, sister, aunt, family member and friend who was loved by all. Clara will be lovingly remembered for her love of family, grace, class, elegance, wisdom, contagious laughter, huge heart, gratefulness, willingness to listen, encourage & lend a helping hand. Clara loved spending time with family, going to church, reading books, solving crossword puzzles, watching her “soaps” daytime stories and shopping.

Clara leaves a family who is thankful to God for allowing them the blessing of loving and being loved in return by Clara: daughters Valerie “Bunnie” Moore and Beverly Peters; son-in-love Alvin Moore, one granddaughter Cappri “Cappy” Warfield; two grandsons Stephen Moore and Tavon Sutton, Sr. (preceded in death); four great-grandchildren Destinnee Smoot, Nakaylah Warfield, Tavon Sutton, Jr. and Chardae Moore; sister Charlotte Pollard; niece and nephew-in-love Krystal and Jerome Wilkerson; niece Robyn Lee; great nephew and niece-in-love Tyren and Jena Wilkerson; great-great niece Bailey Wilkerson and a host of loving family and friends.

“Imagine if I was given one moment, just a single slice of my past. I could hold it close forever, and that moment would always last.

I'd put the moment in a safe, within my hearts abode. I could open it when I wanted, and only I would know the code. I could choose a time of laughing, a time of happiness and fun. I could choose a time that tried me, through everything I've done.

I sat and thought about what moment, would always make me smile.

One that would always push me, to walk that extra mile.

If I'm feeling sad and low, if I'm struggling with what to do. I can go and open my little safe, and watch my moment through.

There are moments I can think of, that would lift my spirits every time. The moments when you picked me up, when the road was hard to climb.

For me to only pick one moment, to cherish, save and keep, Is proving really difficult, as I've gathered up a heap!

I've dug deep inside my heart, found the safe and looked inside, there was room for lots of moments, in fact hundreds if I tried.

I'm building my own little library, embedded in my heart, for all the moments spent with you, before you had to part.

I can open it up whenever I like, pick a moment and watch it through. My little library acts as a promise, I'll never ever forget you. You are and will always be my second mom

“ M's Clara and her former husband were great friends to my deceased father. She was the sister he never had. One of my fondest memory was M's Clara's potatoe salad. Thanks Bunny for always being there for me. Sandra Peal
