“ I send my warmest thoughts and condolences to your family at this difficult time. Whether death is sudden or expected, it still comes as a shock, because we never want our loved ones to leave us. We want them by our side forever, and this is God's desire for us as well. That is why he sent his most beloved son Jesus, to undo all the pain and sorrow we suffer from. Adam, by his disobedience brought sorrow and death to the whole human race, but Jesus, by his integrity and love will undo this legacy of sorrow that Adam left to us. 1st Cor 15:22 lovingly reminds us: "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ all will be made alive." What a wonderful promise that is to look forward to; something only Jehovah God can do, that is to restore life back to our loved ones. May the precious memories that you carry in your hearts be a source of comfort to you in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares that "there is going to be a resurrection". Revelation 21:3-5 helps us to see that when that time comes there will be no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about this wonderful hope found in the Holy Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere sympathy during this difficult time. To help endure grief, you can find comfort in the Scriptures by reading the promises of a future resurrection. Jesus said at John 5:28,29-- "Do not marvel at this, but the hour is coming in which all those in the Memorial tombs will hear my voice and come out.." Yes we have the real Christian hope of seeing our loved ones again.##imported-begin##A. Robinson##imported-end##
